UP TO $50,000 REWARD

Up to $50,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person(s) responsible for the murder of Anita Carlson.

Anita Carlson

Anita Carlson, a 22-year-old student at Bemidji State University, was working the late shift at Pete's Place, a local gas station/convenience store, on the evening of June 30, 1987. Customers last saw her there just after 11 p.m. The next day, the morning manager discovered the store in disarray and Carlson's car still parked behind the store. On July 5, her body was found in a wooded area outside Bemidji.

She had been brutally raped and murdered. Persons with information about this case should contact the northern Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension toll-free, 24 hours a day, at 1-888-234-3692.

Please bring closure to the family and friends of Anita Carlson, and bring her killer to justice.

Anyone with information about this case is requested to contact:

Minneapolis Police Department at 612/673-3786 or 612/673-2358

or the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension, Cold Case Homicide Unit at 651/642-0610
